

PEACE PRESERVATION (IRELAND) ACTS
(GRAND JURY PRESENTMENTS).

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 6 May 1875;—for,

RETURN "of all APPLICATIONS made to the GRAND JURY of each COUNTY in Ireland for COMPENSATION, under the Ninth Section of the PEACE PRESERVATION ACT, specifying the Names of the Applicants, the Cause for which Compensation was Claimed, and the Amount applied for; also specifying in each case whether any Presentment was made on such Application; and further specifying in each case of such Presentment the Person or Persons to whom Compensation was Granted, the Amount of such Compensation, and the Cause for which the same was Granted; also, the District or Districts upon which the same was Levied, and the Rate in each Pound of the Valuation imposed upon such District or Districts by such Presentment."

Note.—In applying to the Secretaries of the Grand Juries for this Return, "Thirty-ninth" was substituted for "Ninth," in describing the Section of the Act, as it was obviously intended that the Returns required were of proceedings under that Section.
